Location:

Plymouth is the second largest city on the South Coast of England and after Bristol, the largest in the Southwest with a resident population of 264,700. There are a further 100,000 in its travel-to-work area. The city has an economic output of £5.03 billion, 110,300 jobs and it plans to get bigger by growing its population and expanding its economy. Britain's Ocean City nestles in an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty with the Dartmoor National Park to the North, whilst the natural harbour of Plymouth Sound creates the Southern Border with the Rivers Plym and Tamar on either side. Plymouth is renowned for its maritime history, which includes Drake and the Pilgrim Fathers. The Marine Industry Sector is extremely important in the city with 300 firms employing around 13,600 people. Plymouth University is one of the largest centres for marine excellence in Europe. Plymouth is also one of 8 freeport locations within the UK. For more information click here.

The City has excellent road connections with the A38 linking west to Cornwall and east to the national motorway network at Junction 31 of the M5 motorway at Exeter. Plymouth's mainline railway station provides regular services to London Paddington of just over three hours. There are also other direct services to Bristol, the Midlands, the North, Scotland and South Wales. Exeter Airport is approximately 50 miles away and Newquay Airport is approximately 45 miles away. By Road:

Exeter - 45 miles (72 km)
Bristol - 120 miles (193 km)
London - 215 miles (346 km)

Devonshire Meadows is located to the north of the city, accessed via the A386 Tavistock Road which connects to the A38 at Mannadon.

Description:

Devonshire Meadows is a modern industrial and mixed-use development, within a landscaped environment benefitting from a range of tenants.

The building is a steel portal frame construction with part block and part steel panel elevations under a profile roof with translucent light panels. The unit benefits from a high eaves height with minimum eaves height of 5m and a roller shutter door that is 4m high and 4m wide. The floor is typically concrete.

Externally, there is allocated parking and circulation space within the landscaped grounds.

Accommodation:

Plans and floor areas have been provided by the landlord from management records. They are not to scale and for illustrative purposes only, interested parties are advised to confirm their accuracy themselves. Measurements are gross internal.
