Unit 24 Pensilva Industrial Estate, St. Ive
Road, Pensilva, Liskeard, Cornwall, PL14 5RE

6,141 Sq Ft
(570.5 Sq M)

Summary

- Detached industrial unit
- Current configuration provides showroom, storage and office
- Dock leveller and roller shutter door
- Dedicated on site parking for approx. 8 vehicles
- Full mezzanine providing two offices and additional storage
- Further storage area above office accommodation

Location:

The property is situated on Pensilva Industrial Estate, a small and well established estate accommodating around 20 businesses. Pensilva is a rural village located in East Cornwall, positioned between Liskeard and Callington. Despite it's rural location there is easy access to the A390, which connects both towns, and offers routes to Plymouth via the A388 at Callington and the A38 at Liskeard which also provides access to the rest of Cornwall. There is also access to the A30 approximately 9 miles to the north.

Description:

The property comprises a detached industrial unit, currently configured to provide a tile showroom at ground floor level, together with an industrial storage area incorporating a dock leveller and roller shutter loading door for ease of access. A full mezzanine floor has been installed, offering two well-presented offices alongside additional storage accommodation, while a further small storage area is situated above the office block, making excellent use of the available space.

Constructed in the early 2000s, the unit is well-suited to a range of showroom, trade counter, or light industrial uses.

Externally, the property benefits from a dedicated parking area to the front and side, providing capacity for approximately eight vehicles, ensuring convenient access for staff and visitors.

Accommodation:

All areas are approximate and measured in accordance with the RICS Property Measurement (2nd Edition) on a gross internal basis.
