Location:

The Red Lion is central to the town of Chulmleigh on the village square. It is an excellent trading position to serve the local community and surrounding villages, as well as visitors by way of its close proximity to the A377 linking Exeter (c20 miles) to Barnstaple (c17 miles). The town has a range of local shops, a golf course, cricket club, stables and community college.

Description:

The Red Lion occupies a central position within Chulmleigh and is a Grade II Listed public house with rooms. From the heritage listing the property is noted as late 18th/early 19th century in construction. It has many original features which creates an attractive and traditional environment, which the current owners have enhanced. The trade areas provide for public bar and break out eating areas plus separate restaurant and useful double height function suite with additional bar servery and mezzanine. With customer car parking, enclosed patio and raised terraces there are also 4 en suite letting rooms and a self contained unit for owner/staff accommodation or additional longer term letting. Presented in good order the site has been run at arms length by owners and ample opportunity exists to increase trading sessions and the overall offer under occupiers.

Accommodation:

All areas are approximate and measured in accordance with the RICS Property Measurement (2nd Edition) on a net / gross internal basis.
