Summary

- Rare freehold opportunity
- Grade II* Listed Chapel
- Close to A roads
- Viewings 19th February and 24th February
- Best bids due by 16th March 2026

Location:

This unique Grade II* Listed Methodist Chapel located close to the village and Parish of St Ervan, a rural settlement in Cornwall, surrounded by open countryside and traditional village properties. The location offers a quiet setting while remaining accessible to nearby towns, villages and the coast.

The property is well placed for access to the A roads serving Cornwall, providing connectivity across the county and to local amenities available within the wider area. The established village context and rural surroundings are likely to appeal to a broad range of owner occupiers, investors and developers.

Description:

Penrose Chapel is a detached former chapel constructed of natural stone elevations beneath a pitched roof, occupying a prominent position within the village. The building displays simple proportions and solid construction typical of traditional Cornish chapels.

Internally, the accommodation is arranged around a principal open space offering good floor to ceiling height and natural light from existing windows.

The layout provides flexibility for reconfiguration, subject to the necessary consents, and lends itself to a variety of potential future uses depending on purchaser requirements.

The property retains elements of its original character and benefits from a straightforward building form, which may be attractive to those seeking a conversion or refurbishment opportunity. Externally, the chapel sits comfortably within its plot, and presents an opportunity to acquire a character building with scope for adaptation. Best and final bids are invited after two day viewing slots 19th and 24th February with best bid offers due by 16th March 2026.

Accommodation:

All areas are approximate and measured in accordance with the RICS Property Measurement (2nd Edition) on a net / gross internal basis.
