Location:

Newquay is one of the fastest growing towns in the South West with a permanent population of over 20,000 which increases to over 100,000 for six months over the summer. The town centre has a footfall of over 6 million people per year. Transport links are excellent with Newquay railway station and Newquay international airport (daily flights to London and other UK and European destinations) within close proximity. The A30 is within easy access via the A392.

Chester Court is located on Chester Road an established retail and business location within the town and is within walking distance of the many town beaches and shops of East Street and Bank Street.

Newquay lies approximately 15 miles from the city of Truro, the main retail and administrative capital for the county as a whole and 6 miles from the main A30 trunk road.

Newquay requires little introduction as one of Cornwall's most established and popular resort towns, and is also one of the country's leading surfing venues. It has a resident population of around 20,600. Newquay benefits from branch line railway services and also hosts the county airport with regular flights to London and other destinations across the U.K.

Description:
