Summary

- Well located within a popular Cornish town
- Flexible space
- Double frontage on to Middle Street and Lanadwell Street
- Potential for development, subject to planning
- Open plan upper floors
- Currently four shops and former cinema
- Vacant possession upon completion

Location:

Padstow is an attractive and historic fishing port and a very popular tourist centre on the North Cornwall coast, positioned across the estuary from the famous resort of Rock. The area attracts large numbers of visitors every year. Padstow is located approximately 22 miles from the cathedral city of Truro. The nearest rail connection is Bodmin and the local airport is located just 12 miles away near Newquay. The nearby major A30 trunk road provides links to Plymouth, Exeter and the M5.

Description:

A rare opportunity to acquire the freehold of a large section of prime Padstow real estate. The property currently benefits from having four shops, used separately with a former cinema on the first floor, which now provides a large open space. The property is flexible and could suit a range of occupiers and developers.

Close by occupiers include Rick Stein's, Paul Ainsworth, Whitestuff and Joules.
