Location:

The Mariners (formerly the Cutty Sark) forms part of an attractive row of Georgian style town houses overlooking Discovery Quay. It is a busy location for the town and a good location to compliment the food, beverage and letting use.

Description:

The Mariners is a Grade II Listed building within the local conservation area and forms part of a terrace of similar, predominately commercial premises, that date from circa 1840. The building is laid out over four floors with beer gardens front and rear. Trading areas over the first two floors and with letting accommodation and a managers flat over the two upper floors. The Mariners is available freehold with vacant possession and best and final offers invited by midday on Friday 24th July 2026.

Accommodation:

The property is accessed from the front via a beer garden with space for 6/8 trade patio tables and steps leading via a central stair and lobby to the main trade areas at first floor plus access to lower ground floor former bar/coffee shop.

Lower ground floor: Former bar/coffee shop (9m x 4.2m) with space for circa 20 covers. Commercial kitchen (4.4m x 3m) with separate washroom (2.8m x 2.6m). Internal and front access to rear storage room (4.9m x 4.4m) with rear access. Beer cellar (6.1m x 2.3m) with two additional stores.

Ground floor: Public bar (9.4m x 4.4m) with window seating area, space for 12 covers with long wooden bar servery and bifold doors, dumb waiter from lower ground floor kitchen. Split dining room with internal access to upper floors (6.4 x 4.8) with space for 30 covers. Rear dining area (8m x 4.5m) with space for 24 covers. Inner lobby with internal stairway to lower ground floor, customer toilets and rear pool room (6.5m x 4.4m) and leading in turn to the rear enclosed beer garden.

The upper floors are split with half and main landings.

First floor rear provides for a self contained flat with separate kitchen. Hallway with rear fire escape. Bathroom and WC, Lounge (4.3m x 3.5m) and bedroom (3.1m x 2.9m).

Main first floor landing with inner lobby to kitchen (5.3m x 2.6m). Three double letting bedrooms (all en suite) and office.

Second floor half landing to self contained apartment with 3 letting rooms sharing shower room and separate WC. Main landing with 4 further double letting rooms (three en suite and 1 with separate bathroom WC. Linen store.

Outside: Front and rear trade gardens with space for c100 covers.
