Location:

Cathedral Close is set in a stunning position in Exeter city centre, overlooking the magnificent Gothic cathedral and its gardens.

The shops, bars and restaurants of the city centre are all on its doorstep, including the High Street and Princesshay, with its selection of well-known retail outlets, while there are also plenty of independent retailers and boutiques in the smaller streets to the High Street. Other occupiers in the location include Cote, The Holt, Folk Interiors, Eat on the Green and The Ivy as well as numerous independent traders in close proximity. Also nearby Royal Clarence Hotel redevelopment due for completion next year, enhancing Cathedral Green and strengthening the area's appeal and footfall.

The area offers excellent transport links and Exeter's four mainline train stations are all within easy reach of the property. Trains run regularly to the smaller nearby cities as well as Bristol, Plymouth and London Paddington.

The A30 and M5 lead to the national motorway network providing convenient road links with Exeter International Airport, approximately five miles away, offering both local and international flights.

Description:

5 Cathedral Close is a fine Grade I listed property, set in the most sought-after central Exeter location, opposite the beautiful and historic cathedral. The property was built in the late 17th century and features handsome red brick elevations, sash windows and stone quoin detailing, while inside there are various splendid original details.

The property consists of prominent retail sales and storage accommodation over the front ground and first floor levels plus additional basement. The ground floor sales area benefits from a high ceiling height with stunning period features overlooking the included terrace and Exeter's gothic cathedral plus ladies and gents w/c facilities. The first floor benefits from the same features with further storage and w/c facilities providing further sales accommodation to prospective occupiers.
